FOURTH OF JULY HORRORS.

The fitting celebration of Independence Day is a question on which patriotic Americans are separated into two widely divergent parties, one claiming that it ought to be observed as noisily as possible, the other believing that our national birthday is too glorious an occasion to be marred by din and disorder.
Of course, we know that even among those who favor a boisterous observance there are many who cannot tolerate it themselves, and escape to the country in order to avoid the torture of the "awful Fourth;" just as we know that a large proportion of the noisemakers, including the small boy, and the big boy, too, is heedless, if not ignorant, of all that our holiday stands for, and thinks of it only as a time when clamor may reign untroubled.

The figures which indicate the price that we pay for each of our yearly celebrations are so appalling that one would suppose a knowledge of them would be the most powerful deterrent to our annual massacre. This, unfortunately, is not the case.

For the past five years the Journal of the American Medical Association has endeavored to collect statistics setting forth what the celebration of the Fourth costs to life and human usefulness; and although these are admittedly incomplete—compiled, as they are, almost entirely from newspaper reports instead of from records of hospitals, dispensa-ries and physicians—they form the gravest possible arraignment of the recklessness which is willing to pay such a price for a "jolly day." They show that during the celebration of five national birthdays, from 1903 to 1907, exclusive, 1,153 persons were killed and 22,520 were injured. Of the injured 80 suffered total and 389 partial blindness; 580 persons lost arms, legs or hands, and 1,670 lost one or more fingers.
But these figures, startling as they are, convey only a faint idea of the suffering, both physical and mental, which went to swell the total cost of these five holidays. In this we must also include the weeks, and often months, of anguish of the injured, the suspense of entire families while the fate of some loved one hung in the balance; the horror of a future of sightless years, the pinching poverty now the lot of many because of the death or maiming of the breadwinner.

TROUBLE IN GUINEA.

News has been received in Lisbon of a serious condition of affairs in Portuguese Guinea. The natives everywhere are reported to be in revolt. Even on the Island of Timor several interior posts have been driven in, settlements have been destroyed and Europeans have been killed or carried off into captivity. The Portuguese troops have taken refuge at Bissau, where they are surrounded. A French warship has arrived for the protection of French subjects.

The newspapers in Lisbon attribute the revolt to the cruelties practiced by the troops while collecting the "hut" tax. It is their custom frequently to use heavy arms, and if payment is refused to flag the natives, burn the villages and sometimes capture the wives and children of rich chiefs and hold them for ransom.

A chief of the Congole tribe started the revolt by seizing a sergeant and seven Portuguese troopers, decapitating them and displaying their heads on poles.
Anxiety is felt for the Europeans captured, as the natives are cannibals. After a recent engagement the troops observed the natives devouring one of their own dead.

FAST CRUISER.

A new record for vessels of her class was established by the cruiser Salem at Rockland, Me., yesterday when she made a run as her screw-standardization tests.
The Salem's average speed for her five best runs was 25.98 knots, as compared with 25.1 by the Chester.

The Salem was built by the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, of Quincy, Mass., and is fitted with the American style of turbine engines, while the Chester has the English type of turbines.

The Salem was sent over the course twenty times yesterday, her record time being made on the ninth run. Three hundred and forty-eight revolutions of the propeller per minute were necessary to attain the contract speed of 24 knots.
The trial board which was on the Salem was headed by Rear Admiral Richardson Clover. The Salem was to have her four hours' endurance run today.

LONG COURTSHIP.

With his bride, who was Miss Fannie M. Bill, of Norwich, Conn., and whom he married last Thursday after a courtship of thirty years, Judge Charles Post of Guilford, Conn., sailed from New York Saturday on the Oreille for a honeymoon in Europe. Judge Post's long wait for happiness was due to a vow made by his fiancée that she would never wed while her parents lived. She was devoted in attendance on them till the death of both freed her of her vow a year ago.

OFFICIAL.

To City Taxpayers—Notice.

Collector's Office, June 17, 1908.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1908 are now in the hands of the Collector.
The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1908, the Collector of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1908, he shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1908, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent upon the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1909, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Taxpayers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed.

Bring a list to make sure you get bills for all your property, as the Collector will not be responsible or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.
